Lois Strong,
Petitioner

Docket No. 04-TC-057

vs.

Oneida Election Board,
Respondents

Date: July 26, 2004

Court Order

This case has come before the Oneida Appeals Commission, Trial Court. Lead Judicial Officer, Mary Adams, presiding.

Friday, July 23, 2004 at 4:27 PM, Petitioner, Lois Strong, filed an Injunction to Stay the decision to stop the election of the Oneida Gaming Commissioners to be held on Saturday, July 24, 2004. Petitioner asserts the Oneida Election Board violated the intent and motion of the General Tribal Council Resolution of July 5, 2004, which adopted the Oneida Nation Gaming Ordinance.

The Motion for an Injunction is hereby denied. Petitioner filed her motion untimely. The petition was too late to schedule a review. The elections were held as scheduled, therefore this motion is moot. If Petitioner desires to seek a remedy then she may proceed utilizing the election law. This case is dismissed.

By the authority vested in the Oneida Appeals Commission pursuant to Resolution 8-19-91A of the General Tribal Council it is so held on this 26th of July 2004.

Mary Adams, Lead Judicial Officer
